

ALLIED ORION GROUP CRITERIA FOR RENTAL Lincoln Park Tax Credit/Public Housing

Blended Occupancy Community: This community is a blended occupancy community. The community participates in the Public Housing Program administered by the Houston Housing Authority (HHA) and is subject to the policies set forth by the Housing Authority as outlines in the Admissions and Continued Occupancy Policy (ACOP) approved and adopted by the Board of Commissioners of the Housing Authority. The ACOP is available to all residents in the rental office lobbies and is also available by visiting the HHA website. The ACOP is reviewed annually by HHA and included in the submission of the Annual Plan to the U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development. Where applicable, the ACOP is referenced throughout this document.

Equal Housing – This community does not discriminate against any person because of race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status or national origin, sexual orientation or gender identity and will comply with state and federal fair housing and antidiscrimination laws, including but not limited to consideration of reasonable accommodations requested to complete the application process and the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. Non-discrimination and Accessibility is addressed in chapter I of the ACOP.

The Community will comply with state and federal fair housing and antidiscrimination laws; including, but not limited to, consideration of reasonable accommodations requested to complete the application process. The Reasonable Accommodation process is outline in the ACOP’s Reasonable Accommodation in chapters I and XIII.

Screening criteria will be applied in a manner consistent with all applicable laws, including the Texas and Federal Fair Housing Acts, the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, program guidelines, and the Department’s rules. In addition, this Community complies with the public housing program’s guidelines as outlined by U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development. The screening criteria that is applicable to public housing occupancy is outlined in the ACOP chapter II, III, and IV. These chapters of the ACOP specifically address Eligibility and Admissions and Processing Applications, Tenant Selection and Assignment Plan, Leasing Policies.

Occupancy Standard – A maximum of two persons per bedroom are allowed. Persons under six (6) years of age are not considered in this calculation. The ACOP provides for additional occupancy standard exceptions such as a child under the age of 4 will not be allotted a separate bedroom; children between the ages of 5 and 17 of the opposite sex will be allotted a separate bedroom; adults who are of the opposite sex and are not spouse/co-head will be allotted a separate bedroom; and an unborn child will be counted as a person in determining bedroom size.

Minimum and Maximum Number of Persons Per unit Standard

1 Bedrooms	1	2
2 Bedrooms	2	4
3 Bedrooms	3	6

A verification may be obtained from the person’s physician, psychiatrist, or health care provider verifying whether the live-in attendant is necessary to provide the supportive services essential to the care and wellbeing of the person. The applicant cannot be financially dependent on the live-in attendant. The attendant may be a family member with the exception of a spouse. A live-in attendant must complete an application showing financial independence from the applicant and must meet the same screening criteria (other than credit) as the applicant. Live-in attendants must sign and adhere to the Live-In Attendant Statement which outlines the conditions of the program.

Income & Rent - All sources of earned and unearned income must be verified in writing. The rent paid by the family is determined by subtracting the utility allowance from the Total Tenant Payment of the family. The total tenant payment is based on the greater of 10% of annual income, 30% of annual adjusted income, or minimum rent of $50.00. The family has the choice at each annual income redetermination to choose income based rent as described in this paragraph or to choose Flat Rent. The Flat Rent Schedule is provided by the housing authority and posted in the rental office. The rent may fluctuate throughout the year based on the Interim adjustments to income and family composition.

For more information on rent determination, please review ACOP Chapters V, VI, and VII and XII. The income limits for public housing properties are based on the local preferences as identified in the ACOP and published HUD median income limits. Maximum household income guidelines are as follows for all tax credit units:

60%	$1,014	$1,216	$1,406

Income Targeting & Preferences – In accordance with the requirements of the Quality Housing and Work Responsibility Act of 1998, at least 40% of admissions in every year will be families of Extremely Low Income as defined by HUD. Certain mixed finances properties owned by HHA also has Local Preferences defined in the ACOP. These local preferences include certain income tiers that must be met in order to qualify for admission and the number of units in that income tier. The local preferences are defined in Chapter II of the ACOP. In addition, certain HHA properties have “Mapping Plan” that has criteria that must be met for income restrictions in defined units.

Rental History/Credit/Criminal Background - The community uses the admissions criteria outlined in Chapter II of the ACOP which describes eligibility for admission and processing applications. The ACOP also outlines the rights of applicants if they are denied admission. Applicants denied admission will received the denial in writing and applicants have the right to request an Informal Hearing within 14 calendar days of the date of the application denial letter.

Animals – A maximum of ONE (1) pet(s) per apartment is permitted. Dogs whose breed or dominant breed weight exceeds 35 pounds and no more than 18” height at shoulder at maturity are not accepted. The following breeds or partial breeds are not permitted: Rottweiler’s, pit bulls, akitas, Dobermans, chows, German shepherds, and Australian shepherds. Exotic animals and reptiles are not accepted. Additional restrictions may apply in accordance with the HHA Pet Policy available for review at the Rental Office. In addition, every resident is required to sign the Pet Policy, even if they do not have a pet at time of admission.

Specific animal, breed, number, weight restrictions, pet rules, and pet deposits will not apply to households having a qualified service/assistance animal(s).

All animals must be photographed by management before approval and must provide current vaccination records. All cats and dogs should be verified by a veterinarian to be spayed or neutered (at cost to owner).

Assistance Animal - Certain animals provide assistance or perform tasks for the benefit of a person with a disability. Such animals are often referred to as “service animals,” “assistance animals,” “support animals,” “therapy animals,” “companion animals,” or “emotional support animals”. The use of assistive animals is allowed as a reasonable accommodation.

Under both the Fair Housing Act and Section 504, in order for a requested accommodation to qualify as a reasonable accommodation, the requester must (1) have a disability, and (2) the accommodation must be necessary to afford a person with a disability an equal opportunity to use and enjoy a dwelling. To show that a requested accommodation may be necessary, there must be an identifiable relationship, or nexus, between the requested accommodation and the person's disability. In the case of assistance/service animals, an individual with a disability must demonstrate a nexus between his or her disability and the function the service animal provides.

The Property will verify the existence of the disability, and the need for the accommodation—if either is not readily apparent. Persons who are seeking a reasonable accommodation for an emotional support animal may be required to provide documentation from a physician, psychiatrist, social worker, or other mental health professional that the animal provides support that alleviates at least one of the identified symptoms or effects of the existing disability.

In accordance with HUD Final Rule (73 F.R. 63834) and 24 CFR part 5, subpart C, a reasonable accommodation may be denied under the following circumstances: (1) pose a direct threat to the health or safety of others (2) result in substantial physical damage to the property of others unless the threat can be eliminated or significantly reduced by a reasonable accommodation (3) pose an undue financial and administrative burden; or (4) fundamentally alter the nature of the Property's operations.

The Property may exclude an assistance animal when that animal's behavior poses a direct threat and its owner takes no effective action to control the animal's behavior so that the threat is mitigated or eliminated. The determination of whether an assistance animal poses a direct threat will be based on an individualized assessment that is based on objective evidence about the specific animal in question, such as the animal's current conduct or a recent history of overt acts. The assessment will consider the nature, duration, and severity of the risk of injury; the probability that the potential injury will actually occur; and whether reasonable modifications of rules, policies, practices, procedures, or services will reduce the risk. In evaluating a recent history of overt acts, the Property shall take into account whether the assistance animal's owner has taken any action that has reduced or eliminated the risk. (Ex: obtaining specific training, medication, or equipment for the animal) This direct threat provision of the Fair Housing Act requires the existence of a significant risk—not a remote or speculative risk. Accordingly, the determination will not be the result of fear or speculation about the types of harm or damage an animal may cause, or evidence about harm or damage caused by other animals.

The HUD Final Rule requires a person with a disability who uses an assistance animal to be responsible for the animal's care, maintenance, and control. This includes picking up and disposing of his or her assistance animal's waste.

Pet Deposit and Other Charges – A non-refundable pet fee in the amount of $100 per bedroom will be charged. There is no pet deposit charge for a service/companion animal. There is no monthly charge for a pet.

Application Fee – No application fees are charged at this property for any Public Housing Units.

Security Deposits – The security deposit is based on the Total Tenant Payment as determined by Annual Adjusted Income and will be provide to the applicant once the annual adjusted income and total tenant payment is calculated. For more information on how the total tenant payment is calculated, see the Income & Rent section in this document or refer to the ACOP.

Students – Certain restrictions apply to applicants whose household contains only full time students. Student status includes those attending public or private elementary schools, middle or junior high schools, senior high schools, colleges, universities, technical, trade or mechanical schools, but does not include those attending on-the-job training courses.

Exceptions to this policy include the following:

- At least one student receiving assistance under title IV of the Social Security Act (ex: payments under AFDC)
- At least one student was previously under the care and placement responsibility of the state agency responsible for administering foster care
- At least one student participates in a program receiving assistance under the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), Workforce Investment Act or under other similar federal, state or local job training program
- At least one student is a single parent with child(ren) and this parent is not a dependent of another individual and the child(ren) is/are not dependent(s) of someone other than a parent
- Are the students married and entitled to file a joint tax return

Section 8 (HCV) – The Housing Choice Voucher (S8) is not accepted at this community for units designated as tax credit/public housing. This community has market units that will accept the HCV/S8 voucher but those units are not designated as tax credit/ public housing community.

Waiting List - The HHA ACOP determines the administration of the site based public housing waiting list from which all applicants are pulled and offered units at this community. For information on the waitlist policy, including the opening and closing of the waiting list and the selection of the applicants from the waiting list, how preferences are applied, procedures for organizing accessible units, please see the ACOP Chapters II for "Eligibility for Admission and Processing Applications", Chapter III for "Tenant Selection and Assignment Plan", and Chapter X for "Transfer Policy", and Chapter XIII for "Reasonable Accommodations." Recertification(s) - This development consists of mixed income projects and annual income recertifications are required as defined in the recertification process. A reasonable accommodation may be requested for applicants needing alternative methods of contact to update information.

Closing the Waitlist - The HHA determines the opening and closing of the Waiting List in accordance with their ACOP.

Recertification(s) – This development consists of mixed income projects and annual income recertifications are required. A household's designation may change if the household income increases or decreases. If the household income increases/decreases to a higher/lower tier the rent will also increase/decrease as long as such an increase/decrease does not affect the property set aside requirements. The project must comply with the Next Available Unit Rule. If the household's income at recertification exceeds 140 percent of the highest income tier established at this site, the development will lease the next available unit in the building to a low-income household. Once this household moves in rent can be increased on the current household's unit. If no other unit is available, the household rent will remain restricted until such a unit can be designated at the lower tier.

Purging the Waitlist - The waiting list is purged in accordance with the ACOP.

Please see Unit Transfer Policy with regard to existing tenants and the waitlist in Chapter X of the ACOP.

Accessible Unit Priority - Priority for accessible units shall be given to an applicant that requires accessible features or an applicant with a disabled household member that requires accessible features.

VAWA PROTECTIONS - The Property is sensitive to the barriers of participation that accompanies applicants that are protected by the Violence Against Women Act. Please refer to the "Notice of Occupancy Rights" under the "Violence Against Women Act" documentation that will be provided to you upon execution of this Criteria.

The Property may request in writing that the victim, or a family member on the victim's behalf, certify that the individual is a victim of abuse.

Denial of Application – If your application is denied for any reason, applicant will be provided a notification of denial, via in person, USPS, facsimile or email, which will include a phone number to the third party provider of information that resulted in the decision for denial within 7 days. This notice will include copies of HUD 5380, HUD 5381 and 5382. The applicant has fourteen (14) days to request an appeal in writing or request a meeting to discuss the rejection. If an appeal is requested due to the denial a second review of all documentation will be made by the compliance manager or someone who did not take part in the original decision. Notification will be by phone followed up in writing via e-mail or sent by USPS mail within 7 days. Should changes in circumstances arise from original application date, you may reapply after 90 days.

Unit Transfer Policy Under the Tax Credit Program – This development is not part of a multiple building project per the IRS form 8609. This requires resident(s) to qualify on current circumstances as initial certification for a new unit in a different building (Project). A new security deposit will be required the day the new lease is executed for the new unit unless it is a mandatory transfer. Completion of all paperwork is required. Existing resident(s) must meet income/rent restrictions as outlined in current criteria for rental. Residents who already reside in the development (or applicants on the waitlist), will be screened on the basis of the original criteria that was in effect at the time the household originally applied at the development. Resident(s) electing to transfer within the same building must sign and date the Tenant Rights and Resource Guide Acknowledgement form and HUD 5380, 5381 and 5382 Acknowledgement form. Transfers within the same building are allowed, regardless of the household's income at the most current certification. If transferring to same size unit, rent will remain the same if a rent increase has occurred in the last 12 months. Certification date follows the household, not the unit. If the income on most current certification exceeds the 140% of the 60% AMFI the existing resident(s) is permitted to transfer within the same building but not to a different building in this development. Current unit deposit will be refunded if there are no damages to the current unit. Pre-inspection of the unit will be conducted prior to any transfer approval. If transfer is to accommodate a request for an accessible unit/reasonable accommodation, the transfer fee, security deposit, and application fee will be waived. The property does not offer a preference or give a priority to any applicant not residing on the property over those already residing at the property when the existing tenant is seeking a unit with a lower or higher income restriction than the unit they currently occupy. Existing tenants will be entered on the waitlist using the same process as applicants not currently residing at the property. A preference shall be granted for a transfer for an existing tenant that needs an accessible unit/reasonable accommodation over applicants on the waiting list. A preference shall be granted for a transfer by an existing tenant that needs to transfer based on protections under the "Violence Against Women Act" over applicants on the waiting list. Priority for accessible units shall be given to an applicant that requires accessible features/reasonable accommodations or an applicant with a disabled household member that requires accessible features.

Emergency Transfer - If the dwelling unit is damaged or a condition inside the unit exist which is a hazard to life, health, or safety of the occupants, the property will move the resident to the first available unit, if available, where necessary repairs cannot be made within a reasonable time. If the occupant must be placed on the waitlist, they shall be placed at the top of the waitlist and occupy the next available unit.

Non-Renewals and Terminations of Lease Contracts for Existing Households – This community follows Section XL. Lease Termination Policies of the ACOP. Existing households that are not allowed to renew and their lease is being terminated will be handled as allowed under the program. A written Notice of Lease Termination will state the reason for the proposed termination in accordance with all applicable Federal, State and local laws and the lease terms. This property operates in compliance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and will comply to non-renewals and termination of the lease contract accordingly. The HUD 5380 and 5382 forms will be given to each existing household along with the non-renewal/lease termination notice. If you are a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence or stalking, you as well as members of your family, may have protection from being denied housing or from losing housing as a consequence of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence or stalking. If you are a person with a disability, and if there is a reasonable accommodation that you would like to request in response to this notice, you have a right to do so under the Fair Housing Act. Person(s) with a disability and or reasonable accommodation, request will not be nonrenewed or terminated from the lease contact solely based on a person(s) with a disability and or reasonable accommodation request. Appeal procedures will be included, but not limited to notification of a supervisor and/or compliance for appeal review, for these households. If an appeal is requested due to the outcome of non-renewal and termination of the lease contract for existing households a reconsideration process will take place. A reconsideration is a complete review of your claim by someone who did not take part in the first decision. Management will look at all the evidence submitted from the original decision, plus any new evidence.

Disability Qualifications - A special needs individual person is defined as having a physical or mental impairment, which substantially limits one or more major life activities (i.e. self-care, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning or working). Physical or mental impairments entail a lengthy list of infirmities which can include, but are not necessarily limited to, such diseases and conditions as orthopedic, visual, speech and hearing impairments, Cerebral Palsy, Autism, Epilepsy, Muscular Dystrophy, Multiple Sclerosis, Cancer, Heart Disease, Diabetes, Human Immune deficiency Virus (HIV) or (AIDS) infection, mental retardation, emotional illness, drug addiction (OTHER THAN ADDICTION CAUSED BY CURRENT ILLEGAL USE OF CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.), Alcoholism.

Certain apartments are constructed as accessible for individuals with a disability. If a disabled person requests an accessible apartment that is currently occupied by a non- disabled person, the non- disabled person must move out of that apartment within 30 days.

If an accessible unit is not available for a qualified disabled applicant, the applicant shall not be denied housing. No disabled applicant shall be required to lease an accessible unit. No applicant is required to provide specific medical or disability information other than the disability verification that is requested to verify eligibility for reasonable accommodations.

Reasonable Accommodations – Applicants with a disability may request a reasonable accommodation during the application process verbally or in person to the Property Manager. All requests will be responded to within in accordance with the HHA ACOP. The ACOP details the Reasonable Accommodation procedure.

NOTICE OF OCCUPANCY RIGHTS UNDER THE VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT

Lincoln Park

Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act¹

To all Tenants and Applicants

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for persons that have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.² VAWA protections are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.³ The Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs is the State agency that oversees (please circle the covered program) the Housing Tax Credit, HOME Multifamily, HOME Tenant Based Rental Assistance, Tax Credit Assistance Program-Repayment Funds, National Housing Trust Fund, Emergency Solutions Grant, and the Housing Choice Voucher Program “covered program”. This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A U.S. Department of Housing (“HUD”) approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been subject to domestic violence; dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.

Protections for Applicants

If you otherwise qualify for assistance under the Housing Tax Credit Program, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Protections for Tenants

If you are receiving assistance under the Housing Tax Program, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been subject to of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under the Housing Tax Credit Program solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in your household.

Removing the Abuser or Perpetrator from the Household

Lincoln Park may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If Lincoln Park chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, Lincoln Park may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, Lincoln Park must allow the tenant who is or has VAWA protections and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, Lincoln Park must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, Lincoln Park may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking (such as HUD’s self-certification form 5382).

² The VAWA statute uses the term victims to describe those with VAWA protections, but the Department herein refers to this class of persons as subject to protections under VAWA.

Moving to Another Unit

Upon your request, Lincoln Park may permit you to move to another unit, subject to the availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, Lincoln Park may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, the housing provider may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

- (1) You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If Lincoln Park does not already have documentation that you have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, your housing provider may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.
- (2) You expressly request the emergency transfer. Lincoln Park may choose to require that you submit a form, or may accept another written or oral request.
- (3) You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future.

OR

You have been subject to sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you have been subject to sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

Lincoln Park will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and work to ensure the confidentiality of the location of any move by such victims and their families.

HP's emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and Lincoln Park must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

Documenting You Are or Have Been a Victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking
Lincoln Park can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to "certify" that you are or have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from Lincoln Park must be in writing, and Lincoln Park must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. Lincoln Park may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request.

You can provide one of the following to Lincoln Park as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if Lincoln Park asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form (HUD form 5382) given to you by Lincoln Park with this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.
- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, "professional") from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.
- Any other statement or evidence that Lincoln Park has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, Lincoln Park does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If Lincoln Park receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), Lincoln Park has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty 30 calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation where there is conflicting evidence, Lincoln Park does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

Confidentiality

Lincoln Park must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

Lincoln Park must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of Lincoln Park (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

Lincoln Park must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. Lincoln Park, however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to Lincoln Park to release the information on a time limited basis.

VAWA does not limit Lincoln Park duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

Reasons a Tenant Eligible for Occupancy Rights under VAWA May Be Evicted or Assistance May Be Terminated

You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, Lincoln Park cannot hold tenants who have been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been subject to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, if Lincoln Park can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

- 1) Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
- 2) Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If Lincoln Park can demonstrate the above, Lincoln Park should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

Purpose of Form: The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

Use of This Optional Form: If you are seeking VAWA protections from your housing provider, your housing provider may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Your housing provider may, but is not required to, extend the time period to submit the documentation, if you request an extension of the time period. Confidentiality: All information provided to your housing provider concerning the incident(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking shall be kept confidential and such details shall not be entered into any shared database. Lincoln Park

Model Emergency Transfer Plan for Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking

Emergency Transfers

Lincoln Park is concerned about the safety of its tenants, and such concern extends to tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. In accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA),⁴ Lincoln Park allows tenants who are victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to request an emergency transfer from the tenant's current unit to another unit. The ability to request a transfer is available regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.⁵ The ability of Lincoln Park to honor such request for tenants currently receiving assistance, however, may depend upon a preliminary determination that the tenant is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and on whether Lincoln Park has another dwelling unit that is available and is safe to offer the tenant for temporary or more permanent occupancy.

This plan identifies tenants who are eligible for an emergency transfer, the documentation needed to request an emergency transfer, confidentiality protections, how an emergency transfer may occur, and guidance to tenants on safety and security. This plan is based on a model emergency transfer plan published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), the Federal agency that oversees that Housing Tax Credit/Bond Program is in compliance with VAWA.

Eligibility for Emergency Transfers

A tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, as provided in HUD's regulations at 24 CFR part 5, subpart L is eligible for an emergency transfer, if: the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant remains within the same unit. If the tenant is a victim of sexual assault, the tenant may also be eligible to transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises within the 90-calendar-day period preceding a request for an emergency transfer.

A tenant requesting an emergency transfer must expressly request the transfer in accordance with the procedures described in this plan.

Tenants who are not in good standing may still request an emergency transfer if they meet the eligibility requirements in this section.

Emergency Transfer Request Documentation

To request an emergency transfer, the tenant shall notify Lincoln Park management office and submit a written request for a transfer to Lincoln Park located at 790 West Little York Road; Houston, TX 77091. Lincoln Park will provide reasonable accommodations to this policy for individuals with disabilities. The tenant's written request for an emergency transfer should include either:

1. A statement expressing that the tenant reasonably believes that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence if the tenant were to remain in the same dwelling unit assisted under Lincoln Park program; OR

2. A statement that the tenant was a sexual assault victim and that the sexual assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period preceding the tenant's request for an emergency transfer.

Confidentiality

Lincoln Park will keep confidential any information that the tenant submits in requesting an emergency transfer, and information about the emergency transfer, unless the tenant gives Lincoln Park written permission to release the information on a time limited basis, or disclosure of the information is required by law or required for use in an eviction proceeding or hearing regarding termination of assistance from the covered program. This includes keeping confidential the new location of the dwelling unit of the tenant, if one is provided, from the person(s) that committed an act(s) of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against the tenant. See the Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act For All Tenants for more information about Lincoln Park responsibility to maintain the confidentiality of information related to incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Emergency Transfer Timing and Availability

Lincoln Park cannot guarantee that a transfer request will be approved or how long it will take to process a transfer request. Lincoln Park will, however, act as quickly as possible to move a tenant who is a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to another unit, subject to availability and safety of a unit. If a tenant reasonably believes a proposed transfer would not be safe, the tenant may request a transfer to a different unit. If a unit is available, the transferred tenant must agree to abide by the terms and conditions that govern occupancy in the unit to which the tenant has been transferred. Lincoln Park may be unable to transfer a tenant to a particular unit if the tenant has not or cannot establish eligibility for that unit.

If Lincoln Park has no safe and available units for which a tenant who needs an emergency is eligible, Lincoln Park will assist the tenant in identifying other housing providers who may have safe and available units to which the tenant could move. At the tenant's request, Lincoln Park will also assist tenants in contacting the local organizations offering assistance to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking that are attached to this plan.

Safety and Security of Tenants

Pending processing of the transfer and the actual transfer, if it is approved and occurs, the tenant is urged to take all reasonable precautions to be safe.

Tenants who are or have been victims of domestic violence are encouraged to contact the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233, or a local domestic violence shelter, for assistance in creating a safety plan. For persons with hearing impairments, that hotline can be accessed by calling 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).

Tenants who have been victims of sexual assault may call the Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network's National Sexual Assault Hotline at 800-656-HOPE, or visit the online hotline at <https://ohl.rainn.org/online/>.

Tenants who are or have been victims of stalking seeking help may visit the National Center for Victims of Crime's Stalking Resource Center at <https://www.victimsofcrime.org/our-programs/stalking-resource-center>.
